Who are We?

West Heidelberg Community Legal Service is a not-for-profit organisation providing a range of free legal services to the community.

First established in 1975 at the Olympic Village, our offices are now based within Banyule Community Health Service in West Heidelberg.

Empowering and Supporting our Community to Protect and Advance their Rights

Together with all Community Legal Centres, the Legal Service provides access to justice for those with the least access to justice and advocates in the best interests of our community. Priority of service is given to those experiencing isolation, discrimination and poverty.

Getting Involved

The Legal Service is run by a voluntary Committee of Management. Members of our local community are encouraged to participate in both the management and day to day activities of the Legal Service.

You can support the Legal Service by:

- Becoming a member
- Taking part in a Law Reform Campaign
- Making a donation

If you are interested in becoming a member, please contact the Legal Service and we can arrange your application.
